Success Case

Leadlovers – Recruitment and Selection of Professionals

Problem

leadlovers was looking for a partner company that would make the entire process of mapping, searching, recruiting, and selecting new professionals, in the most diverse areas of activity, for its team of collaborators in a judicious and collaborative way.

Solution

Visionnaire is a leadlovers partner and offers a complete job recruitment and selection of professionals, from the dissemination of vacancies, through the network of contacts, to the final opinion of approval for the hiring of a new employee.

Results

Visionnaire presents great results through this partnership. More than 15 professionals hired so far, with great assertiveness and exceptionally low level of disapproval in the results of selective processes.

Satisfaction by contractors and contractors.
